

Crosscutting Relations:

- Any rock unit or fault that cuts across other rock units is younger than the rock units through which it cuts.

Faunal succession:

- plant and animal fossils succeed one another in a recognizable order.
- William Smith (1769-1839)